

Linville Heritage & Arts Festival Saturday, 18 November 2023

WHEN	EVENT – DAY 1 – HERITAGE, HISTORY & MUSIC
ALL DAY	Self-guided walking tours of Linville landmarks. Maps available at the Linville Hall
9am – 12pm FREE EVENT	The newly restored Linville railway station will be open and staffed by a volunteer from the Brisbane Valley Rail Trail Ambassadors. Drop in and say hello to find out more.
9am – 3pm FREE EVENT	Linville Art Prize. Wander around Linville village, find where the 18-20 landscape artists have positioned themselves, chat to them, understand their perspective, look at the media they are using, see art come alive before your eyes. Organiser: Linville Progress Association
9am – 3pm	The Picnic Society: preserves, barista coffee, picnic maps and pre ordered picnic boxes. Purchase in store at 44 George Street, Linville. Organiser: The Picnic Society
9.30am – 12pm	Devonshire Tea in the Hall. Enjoy homemade scones, pots of tea and country hospitality. Organiser: Linville Progress Association
10am – 2pm FREE EVENT	Watch talented chainsaw artist Luke Sheehan carve an artwork out of a huge piece of solid timber. Back for a third year in a row to create magic from wood. Opposite the Community Hall. Organiser: Total Sawmilling & Timber
10am – 3pm	Horse and carriage rides. Outside the Linville Hall. Purchase tickets outside the Community Hall. Adults: $10 Children under 12: $8. Organiser: Linville Progress Association
10am FREE EVENT	Whip cracking and whip plaiting demonstration by ranked state and national champion Gabby Wooler, with her father John Wooler opposite the Community Hall. Organiser: Linville Progress Association
10am – 2pm FREE EVENT	Display of Classic Cars in George St, Linville Organiser: Linville Progress Association

WHEN	EVENT – DAY 1 – HERITAGE, HISTORY & MUSIC
12pm FREE EVENT	Whip cracking and whip plaiting demonstration by ranked state and national champion Gabby Wooler, with her father John Wooler opposite the Community Hall. Organiser: Linville Progress Association
12pm – 2pm FREE EVENT	Healing Garden Workshop with Jane Nicholson (facilitator and local artist). Linville Community Hall. Bookings Essential. Places can be reserved by phoning the Community Recovery Officer at Somerset Regional Council on (07) 5424 4000 or sending an email to mail@somerset.qld.gov.au – attention: Community Recovery Officer. Create flowers from a range of art materials. Organiser: Somerset Regional Council
2pm FREE EVENT	Whip cracking and whip plaiting demonstration by ranked state and national champion Gabby Wooler, with her father John Wooler opposite the Community Hall. Organiser: Linville Progress Association
2.30pm – 3.30pm FREE EVENT	“Catching the Linville Train”. Book Lecture and History Talk by author Everald Compton. Linville Hall. Organiser: Linville Progress Association
4.30pm – 6pm FREE EVENT	Art Prize Judging. Watch the second annual Linville Art Prize being awarded. Find out who wins and who is runner up. Wander around this ‘pop up’ art show and perhaps purchase a painting from one of the artists. Stay on for the Gourmet BBQ in the Linville Community Garden behind the hall. Support an artist – buy a painting. Organiser: Linville Progress Association
5pm – 7pm	Gourmet BBQ and Drinks prior to Angel Strings at The Linville Hall. Purchase at the food tent in the Community Garden. Organiser: Linville Progress Association
7.30pm – 9.30pm	Angel Strings Chamber Orchestra Quintet performs in the Linville Community Garden “Under The Stars with Voices”. Ticketed event. General Admission: $35 Linville Progress Members: $25 Supper will be available for purchase at interval. Bookings essential online https://www.trybooking.com/CLNKT Organiser: Linville Progress Association
ALL DAY	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Linville Store: Sausage Rolls, Pies, Cakes, Drinks and Coffee • The Linville Hotel: All day dining with live music

Linville Heritage & Arts Festival Sunday, 19 November 2023

WHEN	EVENT – DAY 2 – IN THE GARDEN AND AROUND THE VILLAGE
ALL DAY	Self-guided walking tours of Linville landmarks. Maps available at the Linville Hall
7am – 10am	Fresh Strawberries or Bananas on Pancakes in the Community Garden in conjunction with the Community Markets. Purchase at the food tent in the Community Garden. Organiser: Linville Progress Association
7am – 12pm	Picnic Society Pop-Up Patisserie – Barista Coffee, Home Made Croissants and Danishes. Linville Jam, Linville Candles and Linville Tea Towels. Purchase in store at 44 George Street, Linville. Organiser: The Picnic Society
7am – 12pm FREE EVENT	Festival Markets in the Linville Hall and Gardens. Live music with Bill & Pete. Food, art, jewellery, plants and craft. Pie Cart, soft drinks and water will also be available for purchase. Organiser: Linville Progress Association
7am – 12pm	Home Grown Seedling and Plants Sale – at the Shade House Organiser: Linville Progress Association Garden Committee
7.30am – 11.30am FREE EVENT	Bill and Pete in the Garden. Once again this year, Father and Son duo will play near the Sandstone Piazza in the Community Garden. Organiser: Linville Progress Association
8am – 11am	Pie Van: Fresh Pies and Sausage rolls baked on site. Outside the Community Hall Organiser: Linville Progress Association
8am – 1pm FREE EVENT	‘Play Me, I’m Yours’. Live painting of upright piano. Watch local artist Susan McConnel as she paints. Organiser: Linville Progress Sponsor: BVRT Users Group
8am – 12pm FREE EVENT	Model Railway Demonstration in the Linville Community Garden Organiser: Toogoolawah & District History Group and Somerset Model Railway Club

WHEN	EVENT – DAY 2 – IN THE GARDEN AND AROUND THE VILLAGE
9am – 12pm FREE EVENT	The newly restored Linville railway station will be open and staffed by a volunteer from the Brisbane Valley Rail Trail Ambassadors. Drop in and say hello to find out more.
10am – 2pm FREE EVENT	Display of Classic Cars in George St, Linville Organiser: Linville Progress Association
10am – 2pm	The Picnic Society preserves tasting in store at 44 George St Linville. Organiser: The Picnic Society
12pm – 1pm FREE EVENT	Artist’s Talk by Rosie O’Brien Listen to talented local mosaic artist in the Community Garden as she explains her approach to her latest installation – a stunning mosaic bird, bee and butterfly bath situated on a sandstone plinth in front of the shade house in the Community Garden. Rosie is a fascinating speaker who brings the creative process alive in an engaging and inclusive manner. Organiser: Linville Progress Association
2pm – 3pm VIP invitation	Stage 4 Linville Community Garden reveal and afternoon tea. Organiser: Linville Progress Association
4pm – 7pm	Pizza Night at The Linville Hotel. Top off the weekend with fresh pizzas from the oven. Organiser: Linville Hotel
ALL DAY	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Linville Store: Sausage Rolls, Pies, Cakes, Drinks and Coffee • The Linville Hotel: All day dining with live music